

Carnival Cruise Line Travel Agent Promotion Offers Great Rates And Waived Noncommissionable Fees On Third And Fourth Guests On Fall Cruises

May 15, 2018

Lower rates for consumers, higher commissions for travel agents

MIAMI (May 15, 2018) — Carnival Cruise Line is running a promotion for travel agents that offers great rates for third and fourth guests in the same stateroom and waives noncommissionable fees for those guests.

More families and friends will be able to take a Carnival cruise this fall, while travel agents earn more commission. The promotion runs through May 31, 2018, and is available on select cruises through fall 2018.

"As we grow #thelist we're looking to activate initiatives that benefit both consumers and our travel partners," said Adolfo Perez, Carnival's senior vice president of sales & trade marketing. "This is a fantastic opportunity for agents to get their clients great rates on Carnival's fall cruises and earn higher commission, making it a win-win for everyone."

The offer is the latest addition to #thelist of Carnival's travel agent initiatives, which includes Be the Hero, Agentpalooza, Carnival Conversations, AMP Up Commission Program, Dedicated Group Desk, and commissions on Future Cruise Credits.

The special offer can be booked through GoCCL.com, GDS and Carnival's contact center.
