Carnival Awarded 'Best Value for Money' in Cruise Critic Editors' Picks Awards

Carnival Cruise Line is the “Best Value for Money” in the Ocean Category of Cruise Critic Editors’ Picks Awards for 2022. Cruise Critic announced the award winners today.

“The trademark of a Carnival cruise is a fun and memorable experience for the entire family – no matter your age or your interests –where we deliver the best service, food, entertainment and activities at sea at an affordable price. The ‘Best Value’ honor exemplifies the promise we make to our guests and the work our onboard teams put in to uphold it,” said Christine Duffy, president of Carnival Cruise Line.

Cruise Critic editors noted Carnival earned the award for the wide array of choices offered to guests at little or no extra charge, citing popular venues like the BlueIguana Cantina and Guy’s Burger Joint.

“Carnival Cruise Line has been named ‘Best Value’ because it is exactly that: a moderately-priced cruise vacation that doesn’t nickel-and-dime passengers,” Cruise Critic editors noted. “Drinks are reasonably priced, internet packages are economical (and work!), and much of the line’s entertainment options are entirely free.”

The awards are organized by a panel of cruise experts from Cruise Critic, the world’s largest cruise reviews site and online cruise community. The honors are awarded based on first-hand experience and cruise industry knowledge.
