SAVOR THE JOURNEY

From May through October, Zuiderdam offers a series of seven-day departures with ports that highlight the Atlantic Coast's delicious seafood, maritime history, charming seaside towns and natural beauty. Volendam offers 10- and 11-day itineraries that include ports with a blend of historical English and French influences, while repositioning cruises to and from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, include a maiden call at Yorktown (Williamsburg), Virginia. In September, Volendam also will offer three seven-day cruises that feature highlights from the region and fall foliage opportunities.

"With Zuiderdam beginning in May, we will slightly increase our capacity in the region from previous years and add more verandah staterooms available for booking," said Beth Bodensteiner, Holland America Line's chief commercial officer. "Plus, our itineraries present several choices for a truly unique vacation that explores a culturally-rich region from an easy gateway for an extended season, including the popular fall foliage and longer voyages up to Greenland and Iceland."

Highlights of the 2025 Season:

- A 25-day "Canada, New England, Greenland and Iceland" Legendary Voyage departing July 12 on Volendam sails roundtrip from Boston, enhancing Holland America Line's homeport initiative that allows guests to see the world from their doorstep with a drive or short flight to the port. The cruise makes six calls around Iceland, with 11 additional visits in Greenland, Maine and Canada's Nova Scotia, Labrador and Newfoundland. New for the 2025 season is the port of Eastport, Maine.
- Zuiderdam will sail two different seven-day itineraries: "Canada & New England: UNESCO Sites & Québécois Nights," between Boston and Québec City, Quebec, Canada; and "Canada & New England Circle: New Brunswick," sailing roundtrip Boston. Select dates have late-night departures from Quebec City; Portland, Maine; or Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.
- Volendam will cruise between Boston and Montréal in both the summer and fall on a series of 10- and 11-day itineraries. A new 11-day "Canada and New England Circle" itinerary departs July 1 and Aug. 16 either roundtrip Boston or roundtrip Montreal. The roundtrip Montreal cruise calls at Halifax, Nova Scotia; St. John's and St. Pierre, Newfoundland; Charlottetown; Sydney, Nova Scotia; and Quebec City. The roundtrip Boston does not call at Quebec City but adds Corner Brook, Newfoundland; and Cap-aux-Meules, îles de la Madeleine, part of the Magdalen Islands in the Gulf of Saint Lawrence.
- Volendam offers 14-day repositioning cruises along the Atlantic Coast between Montréal and Fort Lauderdale, Florida, in June and September. Both cruises include the maiden port of Yorktown (Williamsburg). Guests can visit Yorktown's lovingly preserved colonial homes and historic battlefields.
- Zuiderdam's 15-day Atlantic Coast cruise from Fort Lauderdale to Quebec City in May features an overnight at Quebec City, a call at Yorktown and late-night departures from Newport, Maine; and Charlottetown.
- Both Volendam and Zuiderdam will cruise the region in the fall so more guests can view the impressive display of the changing foliage. Itineraries feature scenic cruising through the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Saguenay Fjord.

- Holland America Line's perfectly sized ships enable cruising the scenic St. Lawrence River, with calls at Montréal and Québec City on nearly every itinerary.
